

Invitation for participation at a scientific symposium

PHILOSOPHY OF MEDIA 2019

Dear colleagues,

In cooperation with the Croatian Philosophical Society, the Institute for Media and the Centre for Media Philosophy, University North is organizing its ninth international interdisciplinary symposium on the philosophy of media.

We would like to invite all scientists, artists and media workers to use their presentations to empower the basic initiative of these gatherings – raising awareness on the crucial importance of media systems for the functioning of modern societies in all their dimensions.

The symposium will be held 17 – 20 September 2019 in Zagreb, at the address of Tribine grada Zagreba, Kaptol 27.

Papers presented at this symposium will enter the scientific peer-review process for the In Medias Res journal, a collection of papers published by University North, and a separate publication in English with selected (best) works.

Please send the filled out application form no later than 15 June 2019 to the e-mail address of the CFM Team centarfm@gmail.com

Sincerely,
Prof. dr. Sead Alić
